

The Scottish History Society
Presidential Lecture and Annual General Meeting
Saturday 10 March 2018

10.40 Doors open

11.00 Welcome

11.10 Talk by Dr Julian Goodare on Scottish Witchcraft Trials and Scottish Witchcraft Narratives and Tracts

11.30 Talk by Dr Karin Bowie on Addresses against Incorporating Union, 1706–7

11.50 Presentation of the Rosebery Prize

12.00 Annual General Meeting

- Apologies
- Minutes of the Last Meeting and Matters Arising
- Convenor's Report
- Treasurer's Report
- Communication Officer's Report
- Any Other Business

13.00 Lunch (in the McMillan Room, Old Medical School)

14.00 Presidential Lecture by Prof. Roger Mason on Inventing the Scots V: Scotland and Britain, 1300-1700

Unless otherwise specified all events take place in the Meadows Lecture Theatre, Old Medical School, Teviot Place, Edinburgh, EH8 9AG.

You are warmly invited to attend all of the events listed above (including the AGM) whether or not you are a member of the Scottish History Society.